He was first employed on the steamer Hadee, a Missouri River boat. He afterwards fitted up and hought the steamer Cataract, a packet boat running between St. Louis and Peorla. He had charge of the engines on the steamer Marble City, when it made its fast trip from Memphis to St. Louis. He also had charge of the engines of many other boats which have made record-breaking trips. He has been retired from active service for several years.

Carvor holds the oldest engineers' license of any person living. It is No. 42. He still retains the license, aithough he is retired, and his name is recorded on the books at the Custom house and at Washington, D. C.

Butcher Cattle-There was but little life shown to the butcher trade, especially on cows of all kinds. Demand for the past week for cows has been confined to a few desirable dressed beef cows that have just suited on orders, but as a general proposition values are fully lic lower than the first of the week. Common and plain kinds of helfers meet with little request and are not bringing last week's prices, though medium to good and choice grades are steady or nearly so, as but few have been coming, particularly of the choice kinds. Bulls show but little change, as well as veal calves.

SOUTHERN CATTLE—The quarantine market was slow and draggy, while supplies were fair, and consisted mainly of steers, and generally below medium grades, though a consignment of decent to very good steers was on sale, the latter reaching 34.30. Some very good cows were offered, with the buik fair, while calf supplies were light and not very good. With competition just fair, sellers got about steady prices all around.

The week is closing with values in steers and cows just about where they were last Thursday; some gain on both was made the fore part of the week, but lost later. But few good steers have been received, and though sales of these were considered a shade higher, not gnough have been offered to affect prices. The calf trade was the best earlier in the week, though the period is closing just about steady with last week's close. Strictly choice calves are meeting with the best request, but those of poor kill, especially where they are common, are slow movers and are not wanted.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 27.—The Iron Trade Review this week says:

The iron market is still dominated by the feeling that prices have not yet fully reflected feeling that prices have not yet fully reflected the changing relation between supply and de-mand. Thus far the buying by the leading har-vesting machinery interests has been the only conspicuous development in August. Its pig fron nurchases for its gray-fron and malleable foun-dries are in the neighborhood of 75,000 tons, and contracts for 15,000 tons of sheets and 6,000 tons of pipes and tubes have been added. of pipes and tubes have been added.

It is now stated that the steel bar contract has not been closed, though it is expected from 40,000 to 50,000 tons will be needed above the output of the company's own mills. Recent purchases of malleable Bessemer iron have included a portion of the requirements of several large malleable foundries, the latter having taken contracts covered the state of a purples of a several large. of the requirements of several large malleable foundries, the latter having taken contracts covering the wants of a number of agricultural machinery manufacturers at prices below last year's. It is understood that the 20,000 tons of pig iron for which the International Harvester Company came into the market last week has not been placed. Reports of bids as low as ill on this cannot be verified, Ill.59 Elirmingham for No. 2 foundry being the lowest reported.

There has been a good deal of cutting below the association price, and Ill.75 is well established. Buying has been better in Central and Weatern territory since the Ill bads was officially decided on, but Pittsburg and Eastern markets report foundry men still holding off. While some new and modern furnaces are starting up, adding to the make of foundry iron, the curtailment movement is greater, and may soon become factor of some moment. Northern furnaces have been holding for Ills at furnace for No. 2 foundry, but in the past week Ills has been done and Ill.50 has been quoted on large business. Esseemer iron is nominally SIT at valley furnaces, but there is no demand and no immediate expectation that fourth-quarter business will be placed by the steel corporation. A 50,000-ton rail order from the Baltimore and Ohloroad was placed last week with Pennsylvania mills.

Dried Fruits. New York, Aug. 37.—The market for evaporated apples continues quiet and generally easy; also for Oct. and Nov. delivery, prime, have been reported around $760, though glightly better prices

TO CLOSE MANCHESTER A BLOCK AT A TIME.

Varrelmann Compromises Fight Be-tween Suburban and Residents Over Repairs.

temporary permit to the Suburban Ratiway yesterday granting it permission to close Manchester avenue between Sarah street and Boyle avenue.

The right is reserved to revoke the permit at any time when, in the opinion of the Street Commissioner, the railway company is not making sufficiently rapid progress.

with grading the street.

This compromise was effected after a committee which had been appointed Wednesday night at the meeting of the Tower Grove Improvement Association had held a conference with Mr. Varreimann.

By closing the street a block at a time the street car company will be enabled to work more rapidly and still not cut of business along the thoroughfare to any great extent, in the opinion of Commissioner Varreimann.

This was satisfactory to the commissioner Varreimann.
